With a great circle of friends and a successful child care business, Deidra Pierce has what seems to be a complete life. But when a new client appears with the most beautiful baby she's ever seen - and enough mystery to raise questions - Deidra finds herself reaching out to this father-daughter duo. Will her compassion force Deidra to face a past that she prefers to keep buried? Eli McKay has had many hurts in his life - but no longer. He has his daughter, and that's all he needs - or so he believes until he meets Deidra. Her love and self-sacrifice are almost enough to persuade him to reveal his own secrets. But the tension is destroying his peace of mind. Can faith bring these two together?
