Patriotas de la muerte (Spanish Edition) Fernando Reinares

¿Qué motivaciones tienen los militantes de ETA? ¿Cuáles son sus características sociales y cómo han evolucionado dichos rasgos a lo largo del tiempo? ¿Dónde adquirieron esos individuos las actitudes y creencias propias de un nacionalismo vasco étnico y excluyente, que les llevó a justificar la violencia política y a implicarse en actividades terroristas? ¿A qué obedece que gran parte de los pistoleros etarras haya terminado por dejar consciente y voluntariamente la organización terrorista? ¿Quiere esto decir que salen de ella arrepentidos de hacer lo que hicieron? Fernando Reinares, uno de los mayores especialistas internacionales en terrorismo, responde a estos interrogantes a la vez como académico y como ciudadano. Para ello ha utilizado, por una parte, información sobre casi setecientos cincuenta militantes de ETA extraída de documentos judiciales y, por otra, testimonios obtenidos a través de entrevistas en profundidad con cincuenta y uno de ellos. Tan excepcionales testimonios y el soberbio análisis de los mismos son fundamentales para entender por qué, durante más de cuarenta años, centenares de jóvenes y adolescentes vascos decidieron ingresar en ETA, al igual que sus verdaderos motivos para dejar atrás la militancia terrorista. «Basado en un amplio material empírico, Fernando Reinares ha escrito una obra imprescindible para el conocimiento de la organización terrorista.» JAVIER PRADERA, El País «Estremecedor y extraordinario.» ALFONSO USSÍA, ABC «Si leyeran este libro quienes tienen a los etarras como individuos a imitar, se les caería súbitamente la venda de los ojos.» JUSTINO SINOVA, El Mundo
