Spirit of the Environment: Religion, Value and Environmental Concern

Spirit of the Environment brings spiritual and religious concerns to environmental issues. Providing a much needed alternative to exploring human beings' relationship to the natural world through the restrictive lenses of 'science', 'ecology', or even 'morality', this book offers a fresh perspective to the field.

Spirit of the Environment addresses:

- * the environmental attitudes of the major religions;
- * the relationship between art and nature;
- * the Gaia hypothesis;
- * the non-instrumental values which have inspired environmental concern.

Contributors range from a variety of disciplines including philosophy, comparative religion, education and social anthropology, providing students with an intriguing survey on the role that spirituality and religion play in nature.

This is a vital collection for those eager to examine the relationship between the spiritual and the environment.
