Family care lawyer Lilly Valentine's life is demanding enough. But when she is begged for help by Anwar Khan after his teenage sister commits suicide, she finds herself dragged into a community terrified by a self-styled vigilante group vowing to protect it's women – by any means necessary...

Together with her new assistant Taslima, Lilly gets caught up in the sinister world of a self-styled vigilante group vowing to protect the 'honour' of the women in their community - and punishing those who 'stray.'

When another young Muslim girl disappears, Lilly knows it's only a matter of time before the group take the law into their own hands. But with so much in her own life at stake, has Lilly finally taken on more than she can handle?

A gritty, hard-hitting read that will engross fans of Martina Cole and Mandasue Heller.

Robert Eslinger:

As a pupil exactly feel bored to help reading. If their teacher requested them to go to the library or to make summary for some publication, they are complained. Just tiny students that has reading's spirit or real their hobby. They just do what the professor want, like asked to go to the library. They go to right now there but nothing reading critically. Any students feel that examining is not important, boring as well as can't see colorful pics on there. Yeah, it is to become complicated. Book is very important in your case. As we know that on this time, many ways to get whatever we want. Likewise word says, many ways to reach Chinese's country. So , this Dishonour (Lilly Valentine Series) can make you truly feel more interested to read.
