Construction, Coherence and Connotation: Studies on the Septuagint, Apocryphal and Cognate Literature (Deuterocanonical and Cognate Literature Studies)

This collection of essays fills a gap in research on the recurring theme of the Wisdom of the deity, its decryption and reception. South African and international scholars have applied new critiques to the Old Testament and associated Apocryphal and Cognate literature, with a specific focus on Wisdom. The results will be of interest to scholars working with Septuagint and Cognate literature, especially those with a focus on Biblical hermeneutics.
