Disgusto e umanità (La cultura) (Italian Edition) Martha C. Nussbaum

Due donne che si baciano, due uomini che fanno l'amore. Disgusto. Nei confronti delle omosessualità la nostra società ha sempre manifestato un'avversione viscerale, che Martha Nussbaum collega al fastidio provato di fronte alle secrezioni corporee, ai rifiuti organici, alla materia in decomposizione. Proprio sul disgusto si sono fondate, nel tempo, discriminazioni giuridiche e sociali nei confronti degli individui omosessuali: carcerazione, deportazione in campi di sterminio, leggi antisodomia, interdizione al matrimonio. Oggi la politica del disgusto incontra due avversari sempre più influenti: il rispetto e l'empatia. Nella vita sociale e giuridica, commenta Nussbaum, si fa strada la politica dell'umanità, costruita attorno al riconoscimento dell'altro, della sua soggettività, delle sue ragioni, percezioni, emozioni. Disgusto e umanità sfida la società e la politica su vari terreni, dal diritto di famiglia, alle leggi antidiscriminazione, alla legislazione sul lavoro. Sono in gioco i diritti fondamentali, i principi costituzionali. Come quelli dell'eguaglianza di fronte alla legge e delle libertà individuali. Realtà vitali, che vanno articolate e concretizzate nell'esistenza di ogni cittadino, se vogliamo che le parole della Costituzione non rimangano solo belle parole. Vittorio Lingiardi e Nicla Vassallo dialogano con le tesi di Martha Nussbaum, arricchendole di istanze psicologiche e filosofiche.
