The Old Town neighborhood of San Diego is the oldest part of the city. It is filled with a rich history and known for its famous spooky haunted house the Whaley House. However, the Whaley House certainly is not the only haunted building in Old Town. This book provides information for a short walking tour of the ten of the most haunted places of Old Town. For each location, a summary of the most common haunts is reported, along with a brief history of the people who resided in them. This way, one may get an idea of who may be haunting the place and why he or she might have been left behind.
