In A Word Heidi Floyd

Diagnosed with breast cancer when she was pregnant with her fourth child, Heidi Floyd presents a message of faith in God's promises in all circumstances. In her words, this book will help the reader see "how to start a new relationship with God—even if you've had one your whole life." These meditations infuse humor and reflection with faith as they reveal how God answered Heidi's prayers throughout her life as a wife, mother, friend, and survivor. (P.S. The baby is now a healthy, happy six-year-old!) Chapters cover aspects of difficulties that teach us all about God's promise of hope and eternal life in Christ. Each chapter begins with a single theme word and provides life stories, giving the reader a peek of the author's conversation with God. Author Heidi Floyd is a frequent speaker on the topic of breast cancer, and spokesperson. She has four children and lives with her husband, a pastor, in Warsaw, Indiana.
