Mis columnas (La quinta columna) (Spanish Edition) Francisco Suárez Trénor

Colaborar con un periódico era para mí una asignatura pendiente desde que hace muchos años alguien me quitó de la cabeza estudiar periodismo y por lo tanto ejercerlo. Pero la vida, que tantas vueltas da, me llevó a aceptar la invitación a hacerlo en Diario de Avisos, con unas columnas en las que nadie me obligaba a nada sino a escribir libremente mi opinión sobre lo que pasaba en nuestra ciudad, en nuestra isla y en el mundo, y a interpretar también lo que podían pensar nuestros conciudadanos. La gran diferencia que encontré con otras formas de escritura que he practicado (poesía y narrativa) fue la inmediatez de la respuesta del lector, esa interactividad de la que tanto hablamos hoy día. Y es que en la prensa diaria se sufre la crítica –o se disfruta– cuando todavía la tinta está fresca y eso anima, al autor a seguir escribiendo. En este libro presento en un solo volumen las reflexiones escritas durante estos años en los que la crisis económica y sus consecuencias sociales nos han hecho cambiar la forma de ver la vida y de enfrentarnos, también de una manera distinta, a un futuro amenazante.
