Educator's Memoir Stacy L. Phillips

This book is about children, specifically about children with disabilities. This Memoir's author is a Special Education Teacher who describes real people and real events that have occurred during her professional career. These pages painted the colorful portraits of little boys and girls in need of extra help at the very beginning of their journey of life. The "Educator's Memoir" includes everything that made the teacher's heart ache and what made it sing.
