Old: Stories of Aging and Reflections on Caregiving Rich Grimes

If you wish to travel back in time and experience first-hand the lives of a group of most interesting seniors, then reading Old: Stories of Aging and Reflections on Caregiving is your ticket. The individuals I interviewed share tales that provide descriptive historical references, personal struggles, good times and bad, and a humanity that will stir an emotional connection with the readers. A chapter on caregiving acknowledges and celebrates those who devote their time and energy balancing the care of a loved one with their own needs. A quick and colorful read, the contents will be of great interest to baby boomers, caregivers, or people at any stage of life.
