God is not who you think He is ... Begin your journey by discovering: - when God wept - when God smiled - when God became a man - when God wrote - when God danced - when God poured out - when God answered The Scribe's Letters are events that happen on earth written from an angel's point of view. If you have ever wondered about the heavenly realm, then you will find the book intriguing and full of thought provoking truth. Comments from readers: - Alan Brents writes in such a way that makes you see truth as never before. - Here is an author who paints a picture with words that you can practically see with your eyes! - When I read this book, it touched my heart and caused me to see things in a different light. Bio - Husband, father, pastor, teacher, musician, author, worship leader, song writer, laborer, and heavy equipment operator, Alan Brents wears many different hats (and hard hats); but he writes as a child who has peeked under the edge of the tent and has a secret to share.
