While the River City is known for its history of furniture making, it also has a sinister side. Jennie Flood was a widow with a get-rich scheme that involved a shotgun and an insurance application. Reverend Ferris went undercover in his war against the city's purveyors of vice. The police rounded up the usual suspects in an attempt to solve the infamous 1921 bank heist that led to the slaying of two detectives. And the death of a teenager exposed "Aunty" Smith and her dangerous side business conducted in the shadows. Author Tobin T. Buhk delves into the colorful characters of Grand Rapids' past and the heinous crimes they committed.

As a university student, I exactly feel bored to help reading. If their teacher requested them to go to the library as well as to make a summary for some book, they are complained. Just small students that have reading's internal or real their leisure activity. They just do what the instructor wants, like asked to the library. They go to presently there but nothing reading critically. Any student feels that studying is not important, boring along with can't see colorful images on there. Yeah, it is to become complicated. A book is very important for you personally. As we know that on this age, many ways to get whatever you want. Likewise, word says, many ways to reach Chinese's country. So, this Murder & Mayhem in Grand Rapids can make you truly feel more interested to read.
