Color of Justice: A Novel (Zane Presents) J. Leon Pridgen II

An intriguing story about half-brothers who reunite in the legal justice system—one as a prosecuting attorney and the other on Death Row—and a race against time for the young prosecutor to save his older brother's life.

Can a young prosecuting attorney rescue his brother from death row before it's too late?

At the age of one, James was adopted by his grandparents and raised as their own. He never knew the truth about his biological parents or that he had an older half brother who was left to fend for himself on the streets.

Flourishing as a prosecuting attorney twenty-seven years later, James meets Warren on death row, two weeks away from execution for the rape and murder of a white woman. Warren is innocent, but can James do anything to save his brother's life?
