Le Christ destin de l'homme - Itinéraires d'anthropologie filiale (Fondamentaux) (French Edition)

Jean Laffitte

"Le mystère de l'homme ne s'éclaire vraiment que dans le mystère du Verbe incarné." Issue de la Constitution Gaudium et Spes du concile Vatican II, cette phrase est fondatrice de l'anthropologie chrétienne, domaine si souvent négligé des études théologiques. Mgr Laffitte nous livre un grand nombre de réflexions sur des thèmes aussi divers que la famille, l'amour, la vie, la souffrance et la mort, la conscience morale, la société, l'agir chrétien, le Pardon, le Cœur du Christ.

Ce qui frappe à la lecture de ces pages est la grande unité qui s'en dégage, qui fait de cet ouvrage une contribution décisive à la réflexion chrétienne sur la nature de l'homme, sa place dans la société, ses aspirations et ses choix, son origine et sa destinée. La lumière de la Révélation éclaire toutes les dimensions de l'existence et de ces expériences humaines fondamentales, qu'évoquait si souvent le bienheureux Jean-Paul II.

En des temps où se dérobent une à une les colonnes qui soutiennent la structuration de l'être humain dans toute sa complexité, et en particulier où les liens de filiation et de paternité s'affaiblissent, l'auteur dessine les contours d'une véritable anthropologie filiale - l'expression est appelée à faire date -, seule apte à donner à l'homme une compréhension du sens de sa vie, en même temps que la réponse aux questionnements et inquiétudes qui habitent son esprit et son cœur. Le Fils éternel révèle à chacun le secret de son être créé : il est fils dans le Fils, choisi et aimé de toute éternité, et destiné à vivre éternellement de l'amour du Père.
