Justine doesn't need a man in her life--it's full enough with her job as church secretary, her elderly father who depends on her care, and her busybody older sister. But there's Luke Butler, whose dark eyes and dangerous grin still send sparks along Justine's nerves... even though she's no longer the sixteen year old she was the last time they were together. Luke's only goal in reuniting with the woman who once broke his heart is revenge. We he left Bailey's Fork all those years ago, no one thought he was doo enough for Justine Kane. Now he's back, ready to prove how wrong they were about him. Despite their differences, Justine and Luke have one thing in common: They're both sure they never want to be hurt by the other again. They have no intention of picking up where they left off as teenagers. But sometimes God's plans are different...
