Understanding Theology: Volume 3 R. T. Kendall

Volumes I and II of Understanding Theology have been tremendously well received. They have almost created a new genre due to their unique means of communicating truths from the Bible. Taken from subjects covered in the Westminster School of Theology they are a comprehensive handbook of practical theology. The content and format of the books are their strength - each volume contains a list of doctrinal subjects that occur again and again in adult Sunday Schools, House Groups, Bible studies and congregational meetings. Each subject is dealt with in outline form - giving you the maximum information in a way that is easily digestible. If you want to work your way through a doctrine and its practical outcome then Understanding Theology has been designed for you.
